HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that for our part we like the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling so and which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient safe and secure.
It is easy to change to the style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use it in new instances ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

State Territorial and County Rights for sale. For the Pacific States and Territories address C. H. HORNE Agent, (Box 1, care Portland Post Office) and Brevet J. W. OKA-HASE, Chief Sioux Indian Interpreter, by a Ballard Snow Rifle.
Warranted by sole agent for Oregon.
Having secured the Sole Agency for the Patent for Oregon by the Austria Oregon Co., we take pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is one of the most important and best method of tightening a saddle girth that has ever been in use. It also has an advantage over all others in use in being able to tighten your saddle girth without dismounting.

A New York Haytien letter of the 12th reports that the people are again excitedly discussing the San Domingo annexation question on account of information that a United States war steamer has taken possession of Manzanillo on the northern frontier of Hayti. The feeling is more bitter than ever. It is understood that this movement by the U. The Secretary sailed at Cape Haytien in search of Luperon, but he escaped in an English schooner.

BY THE CABLES.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

VICTORIA April 23. The Trainee arrived at Esquimalt on Saturday nine days from San Francisco.

The schooner Dreadnought is loading with stone at the Newcastle quarry for San Francisco.

An American capitalist intends erecting a flour mill near this city this summer.

THE WEST.

There are ten forty games licensed in Storey county (Nev.) eight in Virginia, and two in Gold Hill at $400 per quarter.

The Stockton Independent estimates that the number of colored voters in the State of California is not less than two thousand eight hundred.

The total amount of ore worked in White Pine District for the last quarter of 1869 was 13,000 tons 649 pounds producing bullion to the value of $539,657 03—an average of $41 504 per ton.

Doctors Cass and Graham of Corinne, have been appointed surgeons on the Salt Lake division of the Central Pacific Railroad from Ogden to Tuana. A hospital is to be established by the Company at Corinne.

William Wright (Dan De Quille), for many years a contributor to the press of this coast, and for several years past local editor of the Territorial Enterprise is temporarily insane, and is at present confined in the Storey County (Nev.) Hospital. The malady is of a mild type but at times he imagines parties are at work near him erecting a gallows for his execution.

The net earnings of the Mariposa estate during February were $16,500 as compared with $4,030 93 in February of last year a gain of $12,469 07. There are now ninety stamps at work on the estate and the managers are now putting up sixty more at the Ophir mills to run by water. The gross yield per day is nearly $1,000, and the cost of reduction is reported at the low figure of $1 per ton.

Prospects changed. How things get mixed in these latter days. The Chronicle says: Telegraphic dispatches from Virginia City of the date of April 15th inform us that W. T. Eaves received the Republican nomination for Mayor; also that the Democracy will not make any nomination, but will generally support Bird the colored candidate whose chances for election are thought to be good. It may appear somewhat as though we shall soon have a Black Democratic and White Republican party.

The Sacramento Union says: It is easily in reason to suppose that the San Francisco postoffice as well as the Custom House will be run by the armored report of the Department Clerk there for the quarter ending March 31, 1870. The number of orders issued was 6 044, amount of orders issued $151 102 4; amount of fees received $1 079 85; deposits received from offices $191 609; number of orders paid 7 039; amount of orders paid $74 508 53; amount of orders repaid $885 30; amount transferred to postage etc. $306 56.

The third annual State Sunday School Convention of California will be held in the Congregational Church at Sacramento on the 26th, 27th and 28th of April, meeting for organization on Tuesday the 26th at half past two o'clock P. M. The following are some of the objects of the addresses: The Work Before Us; The Sabbath School Worker; Free Lessons in Religion; Catechetical Instruction in Sunday School; The Sabbath School and Public School; The Relation of the Church to the Sabbath School; The Philosophy of Spiritual Culture, etc.

The following from the Sacramento Bee of the 23d inst. does not speak so far as Susan is concerned anything very serious in the way of inhumanity. A prominent Democrat of this city employs a young colored woman to take care of his child. The spirit which pervaded her race on Tuesday last when the Fifteenth Amendment celebration was on foot manifested itself in Susan's case. Very demurely she asked that morning the privilege of taking her young charge out riding. Consent was given and an open buggy and one was sent to the door. Ingeniously decked off Susan seated herself with all the airs of a queen and ordered the driver to fall into line in the red republican procession. There were a few crowded alleys and streets in that procession, but no one could say Susan was.

The Union of April 12th says: Mr. Marvin, a merchant from Cheyenne, Wyoming Territory, shipped yesterday two carloads, 20 tons, of California flour. It was his intention to have shipped also one carload of dried fruit and one carload of canned fruit, but he encountered an obstacle in the way of freight on the railroad. He makes no complaint against the Central Pacific road, but finds that the Union Pacific Company charge no high rates on some articles of merchandise that it is impossible to ship them from the end of the road although they may be brought much cheaper here than on the Eastern routes. The freight on a carload of flour from San Francisco to Cheyenne is $450, while that on the same quantity of fruit is double that amount. This subject is one that must of course operate greatly against the interest of the State. Yesterday several telegrams were sent over the wires by Mr. Martin for the purpose of effecting satisfactory arrangements, but the effort failed.

HE WAY I KNEW IT. The Herald with extraordinary cunning answers the question of the day: Mr. Stay, whether I ever had not left a church-man in his kitchen at home with the remark "The Rapids ought to be responsible for their lunacy, for here and there I see" [illegible] "Democrats or Democrats." A sensible man with a new commandment in his heart, a covenant against murder with the axe, and the fear of God before his eyes, is important, but since it is [illegible] my wife from those interested to Mr. [illegible] I suppose and we not decry it. We want to insist upon affidavit in this case, but will wait patiently to see if the simple denial can be got. He is not so given to lying as his agents are.—Statesman.

The Irish Republican Central Club of New York recently adopted resolutions renewing their pledges to support the Constitution and welcoming the Fifteenth Amendment.

CURRENT NOTES.

The Springfield Republican thinks Fast Day is about grown institution in Massachusetts.

South eastern Kansas now promises the largest and best wheat crop since 1862. A larger breadth has been sown than in any former year.

The Central City Register insists that Colorado is the most favored spot in the United States, at the present time for laboring men that every one who desires it can there find work at fair wages.

The Houston Telegraph appeals to the old secessionists and uncompromising Democratic Texas editors to forget the Flash Lots of the past and look forward to the occasion that is before them.

Now that the State has been re-admitted, all Texans are appealed to to come home from Mexico, Brazil and Mexico, from everywhere, to come. The State they are told needs them her future is bright and glorious and with their aid she may be made great and happy.

A Mississippi writer is discussing the "incompatibilities of timbers" saying that certain timbers of great durability, when framed together, act upon each other so as to produce mutual destruction and that consequently, when such have been improperly joined together they should be immediately divorced.

Senator Saulsbury is credited with the statement that the negroes of Delaware have too much sense to vote with the Democrats next fall and that the latter must shriek "White Man's Party" and shame which had ignorant white men, if there are such who now vote the Republican ticket into going with them.

The New Orleans Times announces that the subscription for the monument to the greatest hero of a subdued people, the grandest hero of the Western Hemisphere, Stonewall Jackson, will be closed in a few days, and it predicts that in time to come his name will be as a talisman to arouse all who think and all who dare to, an assertion of those inalienable rights for which, in all ages and all climes, the noble have suffered and the brave have died.

Olive Logan says that the ballet girl leads a life of toil. She is not a girl always to be despised. She is not necessarily a bad girl. Maggie Mitchell began life in this way; so did Charlotte Cushman. But she has no patience with those badly bred English women with beautiful forms, who have driven respectable models from the stage. The same women who had earned from eight to twenty dollars a week were now offered from fifty to a hundred to follow the example of the notorious blondes.

Mrs. Robert Dale Owen makes the suggestion "More than half of the work of the world is done by women. Even in the case of a shirt, with the portion of flax that is picked by—say women in the mines whence the ore that furnishes the iron for the work of the looms that weave it, is taken—her work begins and, with the making, the washing, the ironing, the starching, the mending, the sewing on of buttons, it continues as long as the garment lasts." She also says that "So long as women have the providing of man's food, they can govern him as they will."

A reporter in Hartford undertook to write a description of the dress of the ladies at a ball. Among other facts he mentioned that Miss Bloodgood wore a double shirt, neatly [illegible] with narrow satin ribbon." Nobody knows exactly what he means, but it is considered rather ominous that Miss Bloodgood's brother has been inquiring around among the newspaper men trying to interview that reporter. Mr. Blood good is accompanied upon his rambles by a very discouraging club. It is strange but the reporter don't seem a bit anxious to hold sweet converse with Bloodgood.

The New York Democrat is severe on the recent speech of Mr. Hendricks at New Orleans. Under the head of "Softening of the Brain" it says: "Senator Hendricks of Indiana, lately made a speech South advising the people to accept the fifteenth amendment and enfranchise the negro vote. We do not see great men chasing a wagon a little faster than they can possibly run, in the hope of stealing a ride by climbing in over the tailboard. And we have no admiration for the pluck or Democracy of the cunning Democrats who first loathe them pity then embrace them as they know and all their lives they taught us to believe wrong, simply to gain office. It is a pity to see tall old blokorys decay and fall to the earth but thank God for the second growth of more hardy timber."

The London Times we are lately told, has ridiculed the whole idea of the Darien canal. But then the London Times is not infallible. It ridiculed the Suez canal and it has ridiculed many enterprises which notwithstanding, have been successfully accomplished—the suppression of the Southern rebellion is a small case in point. A letter from Panama shows that the work of constructing the Darien canal has made a very promising start and that the persons engaged in it look upon the undertaking with enthusiasm. The surveyors are making progress and no insuperable difficulties are thus far, to have presented themselves. The Indians from whom resistance had been anticipated are friendly to the expedition. When the canal is made, the London journal in question will be the first to say that it always thought the project would succeed.

Internal Improvements

The Albany Democrat warns the people of Oregon not to commit themselves to the internal improvement resolution of the Republican platform, and alleges that this resolution is the beginning of a policy to run the State heavily in debt Inasmuch as the resolution simply asks aid from Congress, (in the way of land grants etc) for internal improvements it is not easy to see how the State is to be run in debt by the operation Our Constitution prohibits the creation of State indebtedness for such purposes, and nobody has proposed or thought of amending it in this particular The Albany paper is contending against an evil which is wholly imaginary It takes this course to draw public attention away from the fact that its party is opposed to further land grants or other aid by the Government for railroads and internal improvements generally in Oregon and other new States. But such a device will not succeed. It is well known that there is no hope of obtaining Government aid for internal improvements in Oregon except through the Republican party

The Government has granted lands in aid of railroads amounting to 58,108,581 acres, which have caused the construction of more than fourteen thousand miles of railway It is now asserted by Democrats that this policy is wrong, because it gives the lands to corporations and robs actual settlers And they still oppose land grants, though such grants in all cases now contain a provision that the lands shall be sold to actual settlers only, at the maximum price of two dollars and a-half per acre. They commit the error of supposing that the bestowment of public lands for railways and other great enterprises for the development of the country is a wrong to settlers, when the fact is that without the aid of railways emigrants would never make their way to many portions of our vast domain, and our remote States and Territories would remain in a condition of nature for years to come.

The New York Times, a paper which is proverbially moderate and careful in all its statements, considers this subject in an article from which the following is an extract:

The fact is indisputable that the appropriation of large portions of the public domain for the encouragement of railroads has resulted in the vast iron network which is one of the marvels of the West. Thousands of miles of railroad have been constructed, which, but for Government grants, had been impossible; and thousands of miles are now in progress with land grants as the foundation of their financial operations. The effect upon the older States and Territories is prodigious. Their settlement is greatly facilitated and hastened. The development of their resources proceeds at a pace that has no parallel The value of their products and the comfort of their people are enhanced. And the Government is amply repaid for its bounty by the marketable value which is imparted to adjacent portions of the unsold domain, and by the addition which the rapid growth of States makes to the revenue Thus what at the outset seemed to be inexcusable prodigality is shown by events to have been the highest wisdom The gain to the country far exceeds its loss.

Fear of making war upon the system, then, and rejecting all applications for fresh or further grants, it would seem to be the duty of Congress to discriminate between applicants, and to surround new grants with the guarantees against abuse which experience has shown to be feasible and necessary. There are railroad projects of great national importance, which must remain in abeyance unless Congress extend them assistance.

The Democratic party has, however, taken its position on this subject, and now opposes all land grants as resolutely as it opposed the whole policy of internal improvements by the General Government years ago. Our people will see where the interests of Oregon lie, and which party is the more likely to promote and advance them.

Chinese Immigration.

As the opposition press is still harping on the Chinese and asserting that the Republican party intends to bring over to the United States 400,000,000 of them, (we believe these are Grasshopper Jim's figures and were repeated by the Democratic candidate for Governor in his recent speech here), it may be well to revert a little to the past and get some light on this subject from the lamp of experience. The statistics of the immigration furnish some information on this subject which is worthy of examination

For the space of ten years, from 1850 to 1860, during which time the Democratic party controlled all branches of the Government, the number of Chinese who came into the United States was 70,729. The largest number that ever came in one year was something over 14,000. These came in 1852. The average number that came each year during the Democratic period was over 7,000 During nine years, from 1860 to 1869, while the country was under Republican rule, the number who came was 54,088, or an average of about 6,000 a year. It will thus be seen that the policy of allowing Chinese to come to this country which the red-hot Democracy so furiously condemn, was originated by their own party, and not only this, but the number of Chinese who came during the Democratic period is considerably larger than the number that has come since the Republicans assumed the Government. If we grant that it is all wrong to allow the Chinese to come to this country, which of the two parties is the more censurable for it?

We may mention here that the immigration of Chinese is likely to diminish for a time rather than to increase, for the reason that the British authorities at Hongkong have recently obtained from the Emperor an order forbidding the departure of any of his subjects from that port for other places than the British colonies. As most of the Chinese who come to the United States sail from Hong kong, this order will greatly restrict their emigration to this country. It is worthy of note that the British look upon the Chinese as desirable accessions, and for this reason they have obtained this order from the Emperor that his subjects who depart from the port of Hongkong shall go only to the British colonies.

Our Progress in Wealth

It is announced from Washington that the House Ways and Means Committee is ready to report a bill reducing the receipts from internal revenue by a sum of thirty millions of dollars No information as to the specific items of the bill has yet transpired. The internal taxes were reduced at the first session of that XXXIXth Congress $60,000,000, at the second session $40,000,000 more, by the XLIst Congress $70,000,000—and now $30,000,000 are yet to be taken off Here are $200,000,000 abated in these forms of taxation. Yet for the year ending in January, 1869, the total receipts were still $159,124,127 29, and for the year ending in June next, in the face of all these reductions, the receipts cannot well be less than $175,000,000. What a magnificent illustration of the rapidly recuperating wealth and material strength of the people! "We now tax," says Gen Garfield, "only three things First the vices of the country in its consumption Next and to bacco second the luxuries of the country third the realized wealth of the country in incomes and gross receipts." This statement he, "constitutes the simple creed of our internal taxation"

Editorial Notes

At the recent municipal election in Cincinnati the colored men voted and but three only twenty five are known to have voted the Democratic ticket The aggregate vote was unusually large, being over 27,000 and the Republican majority averaged 1800

A telegram has been received from Mr Garfields delegate to Congress from Washington Territory, stating that he had expected to return home immediately to participate in the canvass in his Territory, but that he is detained for the present on business connected with the Northern Pacific railroad He still hopes, however to reach home before the election

A Democrat writes from Scio to the Albany Register, stating that there is great dissatisfaction among Democrats in Linn county with a portion of their ticket charging that it was nominated "by fraud treachery and perfidy," and asserting that if such things are tolerated longer "Democrats will scratch by whole regiments" The candidate for county clerk, A C Jones, is the person who receives the greater part of this castigation

The fool killer would find a first class job among the members of the Democratic Legislature just now The clerk of Sacramento county having refused to allow colored voters to register, some fifty of these members of the Legislature have sent him a congratulatory letter promising to support him "with all the moral, and if need be, all the physical force, which God has given them" It takes your bed-rock Democrat whose head is full of repudiation, reactionary schemes, and obsolete notions of all sorts, to make a "specimen" of himself

How soon after the election does Mr Grover intend to introduce Chinese labor in the Salem factory? It is within our knowledge that this step has been contemplated, and that there have been some negotiations with the Chinese in this city on the subject. We have this from indisputable authority, and could furnish an affidavit to prove it, if necessary. Also, the Chinese here, as we are informed, say it is so, and their word on the subject is quite as good as that of a certain caricature of journalism, which is published at Salem with Mr. Grover's money, and which so reeks with filth that no man dares admit it into his family

It was a noticeable fact that Mr Grover in his speech here last week had not one word of denunciation of colored voters. His silence may perhaps be taken as an indication of his purpose to solicit the suffrages of "our colored fellow citizens," as some of his party blandly call them now Mr Grover and his party have all along declared them "ignorant," "worthless" and "unfit to vote," but it seems that he is now about to fall back on the idea of the New York World, that as his party has always been great on "voting ignorant masses," the whole colored population will flock at once to his camp. Complimentary indeed both to whites and blacks!

The Albany Democrat tells us that, "just so surely as the people of this State become imbued with the idea that repudiation is an issue, just so surely will the Democracy be defeated in the coming June election." If we are to believe the Herald, Mr Slater, Col. Kelly, Mr. Fay, and, in fact, the Albany platform itself, then repudiation is an issue. The Democrat knows this, and hence it has rebuked the principal journals and orators of its party for their utterances Yet though filled every week with protests against these utterances in favor of repudiation by the recognized champions of its party, it insists that repudiation is not "an issue!" The Democrat can hardly make people believe this against so great a weight of testimony, its own included.

Quite Reasonable.

In the Eastern States Democrats do not talk and act so absurdly in regard to the Fifteenth Amendment as they do in Oregon and California We give some instances of the more reasonable conduct of Eastern Democrats on this question The Democratic Attorney-General of New Jersey, Robert Gilchrist, in an opinion under date of April 2, 1870, sent to E R Stonaker, Mayor of Princeton, says,

The Fifteenth Amendment makes void so much of our State constitution as on account of color denies the right of any citizen of the United States to vote. The Thirteenth Amendment made all the colored people who were before in slavery free If a free colored native was not a citizen before, the text of the Fourteenth Amendment makes him so. Three questions are made on the Fifteenth Amendment: First, is it in force, or legally Adopted? Second, does it operate on State elections? Third, does it destroy old provisions of the Constitution, as well as prevent future provisions denying the right to vote on account of color? In my opinion the judges of election should treat the matter as a practical one, and answer all three questions in the affirmative

The spring elections in Ohio, which took place the first week in April, were most satisfactory evidences of the resignation of the Democracy to the inevitable In Columbus the Democratic organ, the Statesman, on the day after the election, said:

The white voters went into the fight with ballots almost universally of the opinion that the contest would be a fair one, conducted on a peace basis. The time for the bludgeon had passed The crack-head feature of past elections, with all their bloody surroundings, were among the things of the burned past, and they were determined to be men and to act like men True, some few near sighted men went to the polls with hot and bitter hearts, breathing vengeance against the new element in the political world, but even these saw, after a few hours observation, that no occasion called for interference, and were soon joined in the current of good citizens who were steering in the channel of the general good and the local good.

In Cincinnati, Toledo, Cleveland, and other cities the Republicans were victorious and the Democrats tolerant and kind to the new voters. The Cincinnati Gazette says:

The election yesterday showed the ameliorating effect on antagonisms of race and color No opposition was offered to the colored voters, on the contrary, they were actively electioneered by both parties, and with all the sweetness of name that is applied to such uses In war in where last year if a legal voter having a visible admixture of negro blood had offered to vote he would have been set upon by a crowd and would have been lucky if he had escaped with his life the crowd recognized them as equal sovereigns, and their touch of the ballot as making the two races kin, and all through the city although there are as yet no laws to protect the blacks in their right to vote, their right was accepted and recognized and all feeling of hostility to their enfranchisement was changed to a kind interest in their welfare and a benevolent desire to aid them in casting their first vote intelligently

An intelligent English mechanic, who recently visited this country to inquire into the condition of the workingmen, has returned home and published his views upon the subject He finds, among other things, that women are gradually taking the place of men in all skilled occupations, that the American system of trades unions has all the evils and none of the strength of the English organizations, and that the condition of the workingmen in the United States is no better than those in England His opinions, while not altogether correct, are worth studying by those interested in the labor question.

OREGON

The Democracy of Columbia county have placed in nomination the following ticket Joint Representative Savage Merrill Judge, Seth J Lee Clerk, Wm Pickering, Sheriff, W F Williams Assessor, F A Fowler, Treasurer S D Bonser School Superintendent, L L Norman Coroner T J Johnson

The following is the text of the bill introduced in the U S Senate March 29 by Senator Williams to provide for a survey an improvement of Umpqua river Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled That the Secretary of War be and is hereby directed to cause an examination or survey to be made of the Umpqua River, in the State of Oregon, with the view of securing by slack water navigation or other wise a continued navigation of said stream from its mouth to Scoburg in said State and the sum of seventy three thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of making said survey and improvement"

Last week, says a correspondent of the Statesman, as the viewers and surveyor appointed to locate a road from Butteville to Wacuuda were at the house of one of the pioneer settlers holding a responsible office in this county they remarked that they were afraid of not getting men to carry the chain the next day Two of his daughters who were present, and who had paid considerable attention to mathematical and surveying studies said they would help them The viewers however, looked at it as a mere joke but the next morning the three young ladies appeared at Butteville and took one of them led the horses, and occasionally read off the course on the compass and did it with accuracy The other two were sworn in and carried the chain correctly and efficiently for seven miles on a bad road, accomplishing the whole day One of the young ladies is the same who, two or three years ago climbed Mount Hood, and we believe stood on the highest pinnacle

The Salem Statesman has found a champion boy," of whom it relates the following "Jesse Bowen, a boy of ten years, lives with his widowed mother on a piece of rented ground across the river, some four miles from this place He is the oldest of his mother's children, and has already proved his ability to act as the head of the family. The little fellow has been at work this spring, plowing with a yoke of cattle and a heavy plow, which our informant remarked, would kill a man Nothing daunted however, the boy worked away and plowed some ten acres of land in good style His last day's work was about an acre which, with one yoke of cattle, would not be bad for a child of much larger growth His brave conduct attracted the attention of the neighbors, and a few days since Mr D D Prettyman and some others volunteered their help and went to work and put in his grain in one day The family have about twelve acres in all sowed, and it is safe to venture that there is not another boy in the country who can show as much for his age We were about to say that he is the making of a man, but in one sense of the word he is a man already"

POLITICAL NOTES

The new voters to the cooning Democracy Shoo Fly, don't bruddor me!

A witty Republican in Washington says that the Senate is divided into three parties—the Republican, the Democratic, and the Judiciary Committee

The colored vote in New Jersey will reach 5,000, and will be sufficient in all general elections to give the State to the Republicans The Second Congressional District will be redeemed, and the Fourth made securely republican.

Senator Wimans, of Ohio, in an anti tariff speech, lately delivered, gravely asserted that a protective tariff discourages marriages, and stimulates and promotes speculation, gambling, vice and innumerable other evils This is a novel, though ridiculous, advocacy of free trade and woman's rights

The Albany Journal says "Frauds upon the ballot box are no crime in Brooklyn. The paltry punishment inflicted by Judge Gilbert, in the case of criminals convicted before him, prove it conclusively. Have legal voters any rights which the Democratic party are bound to respect?"

It is reported that Dan. Voorhees, in his recent financial speech demolishing Senator Morton, at Indianapolis, was much disturbed during the last two or three hours of his remarks, by the snoring of the Hon J E, McDonald, who sat near him on the platform

The people of New York State are called to elect a Chief Justice and six Associate-Judges of their new Court of Appeals on May 17 On the Democratic side the names of George F. Comstock, of Syracuse, and Comptroller Allen; are mentioned as those of candidates for the Chief-Judgeship. Among the Republicans, Joseph Mullin, of Watertown, Chas Andrews, of Syracuse, and Addison G Rice, of Brooklyn, are named

The Democracy of Missouri, who had decided to have no ticket, and take no part in the coming State canvass, are now discussing the propriety of going through the motions, for form's sake, as preferable to "playing dead" The policy of the thing, as enunciated, is to preserve the skeleton for future rehabilitation in the flesh, should there be a chance of resurrection, which some of them affect to think is a yet possible event. The pleasures of hope work some strange hallucinations in the Democratic mind, now a days

The Attorney General of Democratic New Jersey in reply to an inquiry from the Mayor of Princeton as to the right of colored men to vote in that State, gives his opinion in short sharp and decisive terms, that they are He moreover advises that the judges of election receive and count this vote, and that, if anyone wants to make a case, the rejection of one or two such voters will suffice to have the matter tested in the State courts On the whole, he thinks it is best to accept the situation gracefully, and have the party come down like Capt. Scott's coon, and not wait for a shot The advice is wholesome and will no doubt be taken.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT BILL to be [illegible] The following is the bill introduced in the Senate, April 1st by Morton as a substitute for a former bill. It will be seen that it has no provisions assuming to give force or effect to the Fifteenth Amendment, but regards it as already in force and operation, and provides pains and penalties against those individuals or officers who obstruct or attempt to obstruct its operation

Be it enacted, etc, That if any person shall prevent, hinder, control or intimidate, or shall attempt to prevent, hinder, control or intimidate any person from exercising, or in exercising, the right of suffrage to whom the right of suffrage is secured and guaranteed by the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, by means of bribery or threats of depriving such person of employment or occupation, or of ejecting such person from a rented house lands, or other property or by threats of refusing to renew the lease or contract for labor or by threats of violence to himself or family such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction there of shall be imprisoned not less than sixty days nor more than six months, and fined in any sum not less than $500 nor more than $1 000

Sec 2 That if any person shall hinder delay prevent or obstruct or attempt to hinder delay prevent or obstruct any person from voting at any Presidential Congressional, State county town or municipal election, on account of race color or previous condition of servitude or shall, acting in the capacity of a State county township municipal Territorial or district officer fail refuse or neglect to perform any official act with intent to prevent, hinder or delay any person as aforesaid from voting at any election as aforesaid such person shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned not less than sixty days nor more than six months and fined in any sum not less than $500 nor more than $1 000

Sec 3 That Circuit and District Courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction over offenses created by this Act.

The Indianapolis Journal says of Gen Geo H Thomas that he was so indifferent to all "pomp and circumstance of war," that, though made a Major General on April 25, 1862 he had no stars on his coat until after the battle of Stone river, eight months aft ward, and they were put on by the strategy of his servant at the instigation of some members of the General's staff He wore his Colonel's coat until the moment of his taking command at Mill Spring, though he had been a Brigadier General six months

FIFTY-FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF ODD FELLOWSHIP.—This is the fifty first anniversary of the introduction of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States. This, then being a birthday it may be considered an appropriate occasion to review briefly the origin of Odd Fellowship in America. Several attempts were made to establish the Independent Order on this continent, before the final accomplishment, all of which are recorded in the manuel by Bro P G A B Grosh. The first successful attempt at the institution of Odd Fellowship under the present organization dates from a notice for a meeting at the Seven Stars Tavern, Second street Baltimore, "Seven Stars Tavern, Second street Baltimore, March 26th, 1819." A blacksmith—whose name, Tu was Mr. A blacksmith—whose name, Thomas Wildey, is now cherished by over 275,000 Odd Fellows to-day in the United States, members of over 5,500 Lodges of the Independent Order—published a call in the papers, for a meeting of the Odd Fellows of Baltimore, at the above place. The meeting was attended by John Duncan, John Welch, John Cheathem and Richard Bashworth, and "WASHINGTON Lodge No 1" was instituted. The trials and struggles of Washington Lodge to get its legal authority were very great, and no doubt sometimes the prospects looked very dark, but with persevering industry the machinery was kept in good order, and the result is very apparent. Travelers' Rest Lodge No 1, instituted at St Louis, Missouri, on the 3d day of June, 1834, was the first and for many years the only lodge established west of the Mississippi river. As early as 1847 the fraternity planted the seed upon this coast at Yerba Buena, California, but the work was done without charter, and upon the breaking out of the gold excitement in 1848, the Lodge was broken up, the property destroyed, and the first regularly organized Lodge was instituted September 9, 1849, at San Francisco, under the name of California Lodge No 1. This was the only chartered lodge in California until January 11, 1851, when Sacramento Lodge No. 2 was instituted. In the year 1849 an effort was made to establish a lodge at Oregon City, Oregon, but the petition for a charter was not granted, because of the then unknown country, but a dispensation was granted by a District Deputy Grand Sire, who superseded his authority somewhat, but the lodge was not then instituted, and the first organizing in Oregon was delayed until 1852, when Pioneer Lodge No. 1 was started in Oregon City. In 1850, however, a warrant and property was sent to Oregon to institute a lodge in this city, but these mysteriously disappeared after arriving in the Columbia river, and have never been accounted for. In 1853 Samaritan Lodge No. 2 was instituted here, and the same year Oregon Lodge No. 3 was instituted in Oregon City. In 1855 Olympia Lodge No. 1 was established at Olympia, W. T., and Enterprise Lodge No. 2, W. T., was started next at Walla Walla. The first lodge in Victoria dates from March 18, 1864. Before any of the above lodges were instituted, we hear of Excelsior Lodge No 1, instituted at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, 1846, but not, however, "regular," but which was subsequently legalized by the Grand Lodge of the United States, and to this day is among the list of Working Lodges. In this brief article we have of course only alluded to the original institutions. In all of these locations Encampments soon followed. Our Lodges have been encouraged in the good work, as we should feel all who visit this jurisdiction, no matter how long taken many steps in advance of the United States. Past Grand Representative W. F. Burns, who came home on the steamer Friday evening, says that in no place where he has traveled east, has he found the fraternity having reached for the work they are in, as they are in Oregon, and this was the testimony of D. S. Ste Stewart on his visit last fall. May the Order never fall back in its onward march.

RAILWAY NEWS.—No old resident of Clarke county, whose general obliquities have been the subject of general remark among his neighbors for years, was indicted and tried upon a very grave charge last week, but the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." Soon after the rendition of the verdict the grand jury brought in a bill against him, charging him with subornation of perjury. The attorneys for the Territory had acted in the last named indictment a long series of legal terms and phrases, filling several pages of paper, and which occupied fifteen or twenty minutes in being read to the defendant. When this lengthy document was finally read to him he was asked whether he was guilty or not guilty, he replied by saying, "I don't know, my attorney can tell." He then remarked to one of his counsel, "If they read any more of them things they will begin to suspicion my character." We should say he was very sensitive to public opinion.

THE BENEFIT.—The net proceeds of the concert on Saturday evening in behalf of Mrs. De Pontieu and family, amounted to $410. And Mr. Ball has collected $625 in subscriptions. This will aggregate a sum that will be of very material assistance to the family. In addition to this, Mr. Wm. Gilliham offers her a lot upon which to build a house, and lumber which has been pledged to build with, and the citizens of the city will lend a helping hand in the matter. The committee of gentlemen having matters in charge will meet Mr Gilliham at the office of Judge W. W. Page for the selection of a lot. As soon as all the arrangements are completed they will call a public meeting to select Trustees to carry out the wish of those who have come up so promptly and generously in this case of suffering.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—A large concourse of people followed the funeral of Dr. J. A. Veatch, which took place at East Portland yesterday. The funeral services were conducted by the Masonic Order, of which the deceased was a Past Grand Master. Hesperidis and Morrin Groves of the U. A. O. D. of this city and Multnomah Grove of East Portland, Lodge of Good Templars also joined in the procession in paying the last sad rites to their departed brother. The funeral cortege was preceded by the Twenty-third Infantry Band, discoursing a solemn funeral march, to Lone Mountain Cemetery, where, with the impressive ceremonies of the Order of Masonry the remains were deposited in the tomb.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—U. S. DISTRICT COURT—Hon. Judge Jones—April 25th, 1870.—Michael Conway, native of Portland, admitted to citizenship.

Joseph Buchman Assignee & Co., vs. H. Everdingen & H. Beebe; action to recover money, jury rendered verdict for plaintiff for $374 47, Whalley for plaintiff, Logan for defendant.

Fell, Egan vs. steamboat Mary Hall, on application of the libellant, and permission of claimant, libellant has leave to file amended libel to-morrow. J. C. Moreland for Libellant, Whalley for claimant.

IMPROVEMENT.—On almost every street in the city we see evident signs of the beginning of a season of improvement. During the coming season Portland will grow in size more than ever before in the same time. We are glad to note these facts and expect to see so much of this done another winter as will put an effectual quietus upon all that class of croakers who are afraid that Portland will never become anything more than a one horse town. Several brick and wooden buildings for business purposes are in contemplation or course of erection, and a great many residences will be built during the season.

RETURNING.—There are a great many men now employed on the buildings to be finished in our city this summer. The work on the foundation of the brick of Messrs. Allen & Lewis on North Front, and Mr. Corbett on First street is being pushed forward vigorously. G W Vaughn has begun work on a fine residence to be built by him on the corner of Clay and Fourth streets. The large two story frame being erected for a store on Third street by the enterprising merchant Justin Wilson is rapidly approaching completion and adds much to the appearance of that part of the city.

UNWHOLESOME.—To any one who perambulates our city since the beginning of the warm weather, the necessity of putting in force some sanitary regulations at an early day, will most fully appear. At the corner of Front and Alder streets a very disagreeable odor is constantly rising from a sewer, in which a large quantity of apples have been washed, and many of which have doubtless become decayed. There are divers places throughout the city, which should receive the attention of those whose business it is to look after such matters. "A word to the wise, &c."

FROM VANCOUVER.—We learn that the jury in the case of the Territory vs. L. Van Vleak, on trial at Vancouver last week before Judge Jacobs, rendered a verdict of guilty of an assault, and sentenced the defendant to pay a fine of $50 yesterday morning. The charge in this case was for an assault with a knife the defendant having on his person a pistol.

A GOOD MOVE.—We observed a man engaged yesterday in cleaning the moss from the roof of a building on the corner of Washington and Second streets. This is a good move, which should be made general throughout the city. Moss on the old wooden bucket is a fine thing we've just experienced that by drinking at old fashioned wells in Clackamas county—but moss upon the roof of a frame tenement in a crowded city like this, is a dangerous thing in weather such as we have been having the past few days.

ST HELEN'S HALL.—A gentleman very quietly stepped into our sanctum yesterday and left a finely executed lithograph of St Helen's Hall and St Stephen's Chapel buildings which have been constructed within a year past by Bishop Morris, of this Episcopal Diocese. St Helen's Hall is a school for girls, and is taught by the Miss Rodneys. We believe Mr P F Castleman has these views for sale. The site of the buildings is the ground upon which the late Bishop Scott resided.

CHANGE OF VENUE.—The jury in the case of the State vs. Campbell on trial last week at St Helens, was unable to agree and change of venue was taken to this county. Gov Gibbs appeared for the State and J. C. Moreland for the defense. Last evening the defendant was brought to this city and placed in custody of Sheriff Zieber, to await the next session of the Circuit Court which will occur on the second Monday in June.

LECTURE.—This evening Mr George P. Riley, the colored gentleman who addressed the assembly at the late Fifteenth Amendment ratification meeting by the colored citizens in this city, will deliver his lecture at Philharmonic Hall. The subject is "The Colored Citizen and the Ballot. What he will do with it—A review of the Past and Present—The Ballot and a glimpse of our future position."

IMPROVEMENTS.—Grading and other improvements seem to be going ahead with tremendous force the past few days. Teams and men are in pretty good demand for moving earth on back streets, lots and blocks. Rev Mr Wilbur is making some desirable improvements in the vicinity of Park street, on Jefferson and Columbia, by way of grading. That part of the city is improving very fast.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were were three or four cases in this court yesterday. One case of assault and battery was compromised the complaining witness paying the cost, in another case, both parties being under arrest, one was discharged and the other held until this morning. One "drunk" was discharged. John Doe, for assault ing a Chinaman, will appear this morning.

REPAIRED.—We see that Mr W F Wilcox has repaired his house and entered again upon business as systematically as was his custom about those premises before the fire. We understand that the origin of this fire is supposed to have been a spark from a blacksmith shop, falling in moss upon the roof. The fire occurred one week ago to day.

WARM.—Yesterday it seemed as if summer had come upon us "all of a sudden." Straw hats and dusters were in demand and felt comfortable. The streets are getting dusty and the roads throughout the country are reported to be improving rapidly.

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—Hons Jos G Wilson and Jas. Slater, opposing candidates for Congressman, will meet in political debate, in this city one week from to morrow, (Wednesday, May 4).

TO SAIL.—The bark Wheeler Capt Simpson, will leave this port for San Francisco on Thursday next. She will carry away about 800 tons of freight.

RETURNED.—Judge Upton and several attorneys who have been at St. Helens attending court for a week past, returned yesterday afternoon.

SPECIAL TERM.—We learn that Judge Upton will hold a special term of the Circuit Court for this county, beginning to-morrow morning.

MAY DAY.—A number of associations of various kinds in this city are preparing to celebrate May Day by appropriate festivities.

WILL MEET.—The U. S. District and Circuit Courts, Hon. M. P. Deady, Judge, will meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

ARRIVED.—The bark Live Yankee arrived at San Francisco, from this port, on day before yesterday.

COUNTY COURT.—The May term of the County Court for this county will begin next Monday.

WILL SAIL.—The steamer Ajax will sail for San Francisco, this afternoon, at four o'clock.

In speaking of Hon. James Brooks, and his aspiration to the leadership of the Democratic party in Congress, the New York World says: "He never seems to be conscious of the extreme difficulty of the attempt to one who was a Whig and a Know Nothing and who is now a Democrat, who was a protectionist, and who now declares himself a free-trader."

At each place in the evening.

Shaking and Burning.

It is not necessary to journey from the tropics to Alaska in order to experience the extremes of heat and cold. Thousands in our large cities undergo all the inconveniences of these extremes in a single day, or every other day as the case may be, without the trouble of moving over the threshold. A world with these involuntary shakers. What are they doing to expedite their return to a medium temperature? to break the chills and banish the fever? Are they dosing themselves with quinine, there by imparting the soundness of their bones and impairing the vigor of their brains and nervous system? Some of them are no doubt; but not the majority of them it is believed. The value of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a harmless and certain specific for fever and ague is understood and appreciated in all parts of the country where intermittents prevail. The residents of such localities begin to take it early in the spring as a protection against the miasma by which they are surrounded; not all of them perhaps, for a blind adherence to error is the speciality of some people; but the greater number.

If there is any fixedfact in therapeutics it is this: that the bitters are a far better safeguard against all the varieties of periodic maladies produced by unwholesome exhalations than any drug or compound in the materia medica of the profession. This assertion is made with all due respect to the faculty, but being an important truth, and one that nearly concerns the health of large settlements in various parts of the country and indeed of the public at large, it is made fearlessly. Founded on ample and unimpeachable testimony, it defies disproval.

To break up chills and fevers, as well as to prevent them there is nothing so reliable as this wholesome vegetable remedy.

TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 26 1870

CITY.

FIFTY FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF ODD FELLOWSHIP.—This is the fifty first anniversary of the introduction of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States This then being a birthday it may be considered an appropriate time to review briefly the origin of Odd Fellowship in America Several attempts were made to establish the Independent Order on this coast, before the final accomplishment, all of which are detailed in the manual by Bro P Q A B [illegible] The first successful attempt at the institution of Odd Fellowship under the present organization dates from a notice for a meeting at the Seven Stars Tavern Second street Baltimore Md A blacksmith—whose name THOMAS WILDEY, is now cherished by over 275,000 Odd Fellows to-day in the United States, members of [illegible] published a call in the papers, for a meeting of the Odd Fellows of Baltimore at the above place. The meeting was attended by John Duncan, John Welsh, John Cheatham and Richard Ensworth, and "WASHINGTON Lodge No 1 in Baltimore, was instituted. The trials and struggles of Washington Lodge to get its legal authority were very great and no doubt sometimes the prospects looked very dark, but with persevering industry the machinery was kept in good order, and the result is very apparent. Travelers' Rest Lodge No 1, in St Louis, Missouri, on the 3d day of June, 1834, was the first and for many years the only lodge established west of the Mississippi river As early as 1847 the fraternity planted the standard of Odd Fellowship on this coast at Yerba Buena, California, and upon this coast at Yerba Buena, California, and upon the work was done without charter, and upon the breaking out of the gold excitement in 1848 the lodge was broken up, the property destroyed and the fire regularly organized Lodge was instituted September 9, 1849, at San Francisco, under the name of California Lodge No 1 This was the only chartered lodge in California until January 26, 1851, when Sierra Nevada Lodge No 2 was instituted In the year 1849 an effort was made to establish a lodge at Oregon City, Oregon, but the petition for a charter was not granted because of [illegible] a unknown country, but a dispensation was granted by a District Deputy Grand Sire, who acted his authority somewhat, but the lodge was not then instituted, and the first organized in Oregon was defunct until 1852 when Lodge No 1 was started in [illegible] In 1853, however, a warrant and property was sent to Oregon to institute a lodge in this city, but these mysteriously disappeared after they had arrived at the Columbia river, and have never been accounted for. In 1853 Smaritan Lodge No 2 was instituted here, and the same year [illegible] was instituted in Oregon City In 1855 Olympia Lodge No 1 was instituted at Olympia, W T, and Enterprise Lodge No 2, W T, was started next at Walla Walla The first lodge in Victoria dates from March 16, 1854. Before any of the above lodges were started, we hear of Excelsior Lodge No [illegible] at Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, which is not, however, "regular," but which is now legalized by the Grand Lodge of the United States, and to this day is among the list of Working Lodges. In this brief article we have of course only alluded to the original institutions of the order. In all of these locations the order has been followed. Our Lodge has also contributed in the good work as we shall find from all who visit this jurisdiction, notwithstanding her age and [illegible] many steps in advance of the United States Past Grand Kepresentative, who came home on the [illegible] says that in no place where he traveled visits has he found the fraternity [illegible] qualified for the work they are in, than they are in this, and this was the testimony of D. C. Stockton on his visit last fall May the [illegible] all back in its onward march.

[illegible] old resident of Clarke [illegible] quite a number of disagreeable casualties have been the result of [illegible] remark owing his neighbors [illegible] was badly and [illegible] in a very severe manner last week, but the [illegible] assured a speedy recovery. Miss Sides after the rendition of the verdict in the grand jury brought in [illegible] against Mr [illegible] arging him with assault [illegible] The attorneys for the Territory [illegible] the last named indictment a [illegible] terms and phrases filling several pages of [illegible] and which occupied fifteen minutes in the reading. The case went to the defendant [illegible] The worthy Alderman was finally [illegible] that he was almost whether he was [illegible] by saying, "I [illegible] attorney can tell." He [illegible] to one of his counsel, "If [illegible] needs any more of these things [illegible] to question my character [illegible] he was very sensitive to [illegible]

The last process of the concert on Monday evening in behalf of Mrs De Pen [illegible] finally amounted to $410. And Mr. [illegible] collected some $40 in subscriptions. [illegible] aggregate sum that will be a [illegible] assistance to the family. In addition to this Mr Wm Gilliham offers her a [illegible] to build a house, and lumber [illegible] pledged to build with, and the [illegible] will lend a helping hand in the [illegible] The committee of gentlemen having the matter in charge will meet Mr GIBB [illegible] the office of Judge W W [illegible] of a lot. As soon as all [illegible] completed they will call a [illegible] of Trustees to carry out the wish [illegible] who have come up so promptly and [illegible] of suffering

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—A large concourse of [illegible] attended the funeral of Dr J A Veatch, [illegible] at East Portland yesterday [illegible] were conducted by the Masonic [illegible] the deceased was a Past Grand [illegible] and Morrin Groves of the [illegible] of this city and Middleton Grove of [illegible] Lodge of Good Templars also [illegible] in the procession in paying the last sad [illegible] departed brother. The funeral cortege was preceded by the Twenty-third Infantry [illegible] playing a solemn funeral march, to Lone [illegible] where, with the impressive ceremonials of the Masonry the remains were [illegible] in the tomb.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—[illegible] Portland, April 25th, 1870.—Michael [illegible] Esquire of Portland, admitted to citizenship, [illegible]

[illegible] Eastham & Co., vs H. Everd [illegible] action to recover money, jury [illegible] for plaintiff for $374 47 Whalley for [illegible] Logan for defendant.

[illegible] vs. the steamboat Mary Bell, on application of the libellant, and permission of claimant that he have leave to file amended libel to [illegible] J. C. Moreland for Libellant, Whalley [illegible]

IMPROVEMENTS.—On almost every street in the city are the earliest signs of the beginning of a season of improvement. During the ensuing year Portland will grow in size more than ever before in the same time. We are glad to see such facts and expect to see so much of this [illegible] winter as will put an effectual quietus upon all that class of croakers who are afraid that Portland will never become anything more than a one-horse town. Several brick and [illegible] buildings for business purposes are in [illegible] location or course of erection, and a great many [illegible] will be built during the season

BURNED. There are a great many men now employed on the buildings to be finished in our city this summer The work on the foundation of the brick of Messrs Allen & Lewis on North Front, and Mr. Corbett on First street is being pushed forward vigorously G W Vaughn has begun work on a fine residence to be built by him on the corner of Clay and Fourth streets The two story frame being erected for a store on Front street by the enterprising merchant John [illegible] is rapidly approaching completion and adds much to the appearance of that part of the city.

[illegible] To any one who perambulates our city since the beginning of the warm weather [illegible] ly of putting in force some sanitary [illegible] at an early day will most fully appear. At the corner of Front and Alder streets a very disagreeable odor is constantly rising from a cellar in which a large quantity of apples have been stored, and many of which have doubtless [illegible] Other sreedivers places throughout the city which should receive the attention of the [illegible] A word to the wise, &c."

FROM VANCOUVER.—We learn that the jury in the case of the Territory vs. [illegible] Van Vleet, on trial at Vancouver last week, [illegible] before Judge Jacobs, rendered a verdict of guilty of [illegible] Saturday morning. The [illegible] was for an assault with a [illegible] at having on his person a pistol.

A GOOD MOVE.—We observed a man engaged yesterday in cleaning the moss from the roof of a building on the corner of Washington and Second streets This is a good move which should be made general throughout the city Moss on the old wooden bucket is a fine thing—we've just experienced that by drinking at old fashioned wells in Clackamas county—but moss upon the roof of a frame tenement in a crowded city like this is a dangerous thing in weather such as we have been having the past few days

ST HELEN'S HALL.—A gentleman very politely stepped into our sanctum yesterday and left a finely executed lithograph of St Helen's Hall and St Stephen's Chapel Buildings which have been constructed within a year past by Bishop Morris of this Episcopal Diocese St Helen's Hall is a school for girls and is taught by the Miss Rodneys We believe Mr P F Castleman has these views for sale The site of the buildings is the ground upon which the late Bishop Scott resided

CHANGE OF VENUE.—The jury in the case of the State vs Campbell on trial last week at St Helens was unable to agree and change of venue was taken to this county Gov Gibbs appeared for the state and J C Moreland for the defense. Last evening the defendant was brought to this city and placed in custody of Sheriff Zieber to await the next session of the Circuit Court which will occur on the second Monday in June

LECTURE.—This evening Mr George P Kiley the colored gentleman who addressed the assembly at the late Fifteenth Amendment ratification meeting by the colored citizens in this city will deliver his lecture at Philharmonic Hall The subject is The Colored Citizen and the Ballot What he will do with it—A review of the Past and Present—The Ballot and a glimpse of our future position

IMPROVEMENTS.—Grading and other improvements seem to be going ahead with increased force the past few days Teams and men are in pretty good demand for moving earth on back streets, lots and blocks Rev Mr Wilbur is making some desirable improvements in the vicinity of Park street, on Jefferson and Columbia by way of grading That part of the city is improving very fast.

RECORDER'S COURT.—There were were three or four cases in this court yesterday One case of assault and battery was compromised the complaining witness paying the cost in another case both parties being under arrest one was discharged and the other held until this morning One "drunk" was discharged John Doe, for assaulting a Chinaman, will appear this morning

REPAIRED.—We see that Mr W F Wilcox has repaired his house and entered again upon business as systematically as was his custom about about those premises before the fire We understand that the origin of this fire is supposed to have been a spark from a blacksmith shop falling in moss upon the roof The fire occurred one week ago to day

WARM.—Yesterday it seemed as if summer had come upon us "all of a sudden" Straw hats and dusters were in demand and felt comfortable The streets are getting dusty and the roads throughout the country are reported to be improving rapidly

POLITICAL SPEAKING.—Hons Jos G Wilson and Jas. Slater, opposing candidates for Congress man, will meet in political debate, in this city one week from to-morrow, (Wednesday May 4)

TO SAIL.—The bark Whistler Capt Simpson, will leave this port for San Francisco on Thursday next She will carry away about 800 tons of freight.

RETURNED.—Judge Upton and several attorneys who have been at St. Helens attending court for a week past, returned yesterday afternoon

SPECIAL TERM.—We learn that Judge Upton will hold a special term of the Circuit Court for this county, beginning to-morrow morning

MAY DAY.—A number of associations of various kinds in this city are preparing to celebrate May Day by appropriate festivities

WILL MEET.—The U S District and Circuit Courts, Hon M P Deady, Judge, will meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

ARRIVED.—The bark Live Yankee arrived at San Francisco, from this port, on day before yesterday.

COUNTY COURT.—The May term of the County Court for this county will begin next Monday,

WILL SAIL.—The steamer Ajax will sail for San Francisco, this afternoon, at four o clock

In speaking of Hon James Brooks and his aspiration to the leadership of the Democratic party in Congress, the New York World says "He never a has to be conscious of the extreme difficulty of the attempt to one who was a Whig and a Know Nothing and who is now a Democrat, who was a protectionist, and who now declares himself a free-trader"

Rapid quiet, simple, for manufacturing purposes none equal to the GROVER & BAKER Improved Shuttle Machines Wm. CUSHER & Co Agents.

Ho! ye young men who revel in fashion and wear store clothes ye prudent men who buy goods to get the worth of your cash, ye old men who buy goods to last the remainder of your lives, or any other man or boy who wants to buy the cheapest and best clothing, go to KOHN & ISABEL who have just opened the largest stock of Gents' Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city They have all the late styles of spring goods and propose to sell at rates that will please everybody

Shaking and Burning.

It is not necessary to journey from the tropics to Alaska to undergo experience the extremes of heat and cold Thousands undergo a like transformation every year, but all the changes may be gone through with every day in the year by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic alone and certain specific for fever and ague is understood and appreciated in all parts of the country where intermittents prevail The residents of such localities begin to take it early in the spring as a protection against the miasma by which they are surrounded not all of them perhaps for a blind adherence to error is the speciality of some people but the greater number

If there is any fixed fact in therapeutics it is this that the bitters are a far better safeguard against all the various forms of periodic maladies produced by unwholesome exhalations than any drug or compound in the materia medica of the profession It is assertion is made with all due respect to the faculty but being an important truth and one that nearly concerns the health of large settlements in various parts of the country and indeed of the public at large it is made fearlessly Founded on ample and unimpeachable testimony, it defies disproval

To break up chills and fevers as well as to prevent them there is nothing so reliable as this wholesome vegetable remedy

The Late Bishop Kingsley.

AN OBITUARY SKETCH

From the Cincinnati Gazette 11th.]

The Methodist Church has scarcely yet recovered from the startling intelligence of Bishop Thompson's death, and it is again called upon to mourn the ravages of the destroyer in the death of Bishop Kingsley. A telegraphic dispatch received on Saturday from Dr Bannister of the Garratt Biblical Institute now in Beyrout Syria, states that Bishop Kingsley died there suddenly of heart disease, while on his way to visit the Mission of Bulgaria. He was returning homeward from an episcopal tour through India and China, and had nearly completed the circumnavigation of the globe. He left his home in Ohio, about the last of May 1869, and presided over the western conferences in Colorado, California, Oregon and Nevada and set sail across the Pacific sometime in September.

Calvin Kingsley was born in Amesville, Oneida county, N. Y., Sept. 8, 1812. His parents were not at that time members of any church, but the leanings were, as the name of their son would indicate, toward Calvinism.

In his fourteenth year his parents removed to Chatauqua county, in the same State, when the country was new and the settlers subjected to the hardships of frontier life. Here, for the first time, he heard Methodist preaching. New views of religion were opened to his soul, new truths fixed themselves in his heart, and, after mature deliberation, he resolved to be a Christian in a higher sense than he had ever before known.

Immediately after his conversion, though with much trembling and exceeding diffidence, he proposed to conduct daily worship in his father's family. In this duty he persevered and it was not long before he saw both his parents converted and rejoicing in the Lord. It was his great desire to get an education, but difficulties surrounded him on every side. His father had not the means to send him to college; and, besides this, needed his services on the farm. A school district was, however, organized in the neighborhood, and here he obtained the rudiments of knowledge by attending school three winters. He worked a sugar camp on shares, and the money he obtained in this way he spent for books. He afterward taught school and entered Alleghany College in 1836, with only $20 in his pocket. Many stories are told of his rustic attire when he made his first appearance at college. He had on a boy's roundabout, low cowskin shoes, blue stockings and short pantaloons, but if any of the students were disposed to laugh at his uncouth attire, they soon found out that beneath that exterior was an aspiring soul. His progress was so great that he had not been in college more than three terms when he was appointed tutor in mathematics. He supported himself by doing chores in term time, and by leaving to teach school at two different periods, meantime keeping up with his class in their studies.

In 1841 he was graduated, and the same year was elected Professor of Mathematics in Alleghany College. During this year he married Miss Delia Scudder, who still survives. He was licensed to preach in 1836, and in 1841 he joined the Erie Conference, of which he continued a member until his election as Bishop. While professor, his labors were abundant, as he had to hear his classes all the week, and preach every Sunday in addition. In 1843, acted as financial agent for the college; the next two years he was pastor of the Church at Erie, and in 1846 he resumed his position as Professor. In this relation he continued to serve the Church ten years, when, at the Indianapolis General Conference of 1856, he was elected editor of the Western Christian Advocate of this city, in which office he remained eight years. In 1864, he was made Bishop of the Church.

Dr. Kingsley was a man of excellent understanding and good education. His habits were of a domestic and social rather than of a public character; yet, when forced into public life, no man demeaned himself better. His opening was rather doctrinal than pathetic or showy, and yet there were times when he brought tears to the eyes of those "tuned to the melting mood." As a writer, his style lacks the graces of rhetoric, but it is clear, strong and methodical. He thought boldly and spoke with emphasis. It was not his way to ask twice on which side Dr. Kingsley stood. At the General Conference in 1866, when the progressive party in the Church were casting about to find a fitting exponent of their principles, they could select none better than he. Already he had proved himself a stannch anti-slavery man, and at the same time a firm advocate of unity in the Church in his discussion with Dr. Luther Lee, the leader of a schismatic minority.

The writings of Bishop Kingsley are numerous, but only the published work from his pen is a brief treatise on the "Resurrection of the Dead," in answer to the theories of Prof. Bush. By his observations in India and China, so profoundly was he impressed with the condition of the people, and so deeply did he realize the need of more extensive reinforcements of the missions in those fields, that his correspondence with the Church papers, editorial and otherwise, was abundant. These letters, if published in a book, would form a stout duodecimo.

In his position of editor he probably exhibited more of vigor and boldness than in any previous part of his life. He was the most outspoken of all the editors of the Church, on the subject of slavery; and when the war of the rebellion broke out he threw all the strength of his paper on the side of the Government. Some, indeed thought him too political, when he deplored the introduction of purely secular matter into a religious paper, but with greater sense, Dr Kingsley recognized the intimate connection between the religion of Christ and the affairs of the world. Though he did not debase the former he endeavored to make the latter subject to God's higher law. How well he succeeded the Church declared by making him one of her Bishops. As he deeply sympathized with every progressive movement in the Church, so he was, as far as his position allowed, a friend and promoter of lay representation in her councils. More than once he expressed the sincere hope that the proposed reform would at once be effected.

Personally, Bishop Kingsley was heavy set, of medium height, and strong-limbed. His features, though not finely chiseled were relieved with a merry twinkle of the eye and the slightest pucker of the lip when he smiled. His voice was sonorous, full, and admirably under control; so that in preaching he could utter the indignant words of Divine wrath, or the tenderest tones of compassion. As a companion he was genial, believing that life is a good thing, and should be enjoyed. Hence he never lacked in radiant good humor and cheerfulness. He knew how to indulge in a hearty laugh; and his fund of anecdote apt, fresh, pungent, and witty, was boundless.

He was instant in the detection and vigorous in his denunciation of shams, yet his heart was so generous in its pulsations, that the humblest was not abashed in his presence. Once in reading out the appointments of the preachers in a conference over which he was presiding he said, his eyes filled with tears, "Some of the appointments which I am to make are very hard. I wish I could make them easier, but I will oftenest remember in my prayers those who have the poorest places; and may our Blessed Master be with you to sustain and comfort you."

Of his death we have no particulars. In company with Dr Bannister and several other Americans he had just completed a tour of Palestine, and was about to embark at Beyrout for Constantinople. After reviewing the Bulgarian Missions his purpose was to proceed to Germany, and thence to England, where, with Dr. R. S. Foster, as co-delegate, he expected to deliver the fraternal greetings of the American Methodist Church to the British Wesleyan Conference.

Suddenly as he was taken, and sorely as he will be missed, his memory will be reverently cherished, not only by members of the Church of which he was a chief pastor, but by all who knew him either as a citizen or an instructor.

The Republicans have a majority of two in the City Council of Columbus, Ohio—an event without precedent in that city.

IDAHO.

[From the Boise Statesman Apr 10]

The spring rush toward the mines has occasioned quite a demand for horse flesh. A brisk trade in horses has been going on in Boise for several days.

We are informed that the iron to be used in the construction of the penitentiary has been purchased of Corbett, Miller & Co., Portland Oregon.

[From the Owyhee Avalanche April 3]

The mountain streams are becoming much swollen, and Jordan valley is submerged.

Mr Peck is pushing forward work on his main tunnel on Jordan Ely running about ten feet further he expects to strike a rich lead. The ore that was discovered on the surface a couple of years ago.

Ore immensely rich in gold is now being taken from the Corduroy, now incorporated under the name of "Mahogany."

Work is being actively prosecuted in the Lower man, Empire, Baxter and Peck & Porter mines. Work will soon be resumed in the Oro Fino Rising Star and other mines. The Golden Age produces an active and successful mining season.

General Pleasanton, an old Indian fighter, used to tell how a child's jumping jack displayed at a frontier fort, was the means of averting a threatened Indian war and securing a favorable treaty. The "noble red men" were completely conquered by the marvelous toy, and would regard it for hours at a time, lost in wonder and admiration.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND April 28, 1870

At New York, this morning, gold was quoted at 113¼.

Legal Tenders are worth in this market 88½@89¼. This is above the gold value in New York and is altogether attributable to temporary local demand.

Money is not, we think, so scarce as one or two months ago and yet there is not by any means more than is wanted for legitimate business purposes. There are a good many bills yet owing by interior merchants, bills which have been standing for a year or six months. The debtors are not in all cases prepared to pay just yet, and as they cannot well invest in spring stocks without paying their old bills, the general indebtedness serves to seriously retard the full opening of the spring trade. It is thought that the mines of Eastern Oregon, Idaho and Washington will furnish at an early day enough dust and bullion to place the market in easy condition.

Business in the merchandise market opens very fairly this week. There is a little slacking in Dry Goods, prices remaining as before. Groceries are moving off steadily and in good volume, the trade being very nearly equally divided between the Columbia and the Willamet river. Bills from the Columbia region are fair in excess of those of last month. Hardware.—We find to day some of our leading houses quite busy with orders from Umatilla, Walla Walla, Lewiston, and various points in the interior of Eastern Oregon. Sales are of general assortments. Agricultural Goods.—Trade fairly, and note sales of several harvesting machines within the last two or three days and fair bills of early farm and gardening tools.

The Produce market is without particular change. The flour demand for export amounts to small lots of favorite brands, for San Francisco, for bakers and family use, and of inferior brands, for China. We are sending about the usual supplies to Victoria and Puget Sound, and, what is quite unusual, considerable shipments up the Columbia River. The country east of the mountains will have to buy—so we are informed—the greater part of all the produce to be consumed till harvest. Bacon is scarce in good demand at our quotations. Butter is in better supply than usual at this season of the year prices compared with the 13,000,000 imported. This however, is the extent of the present capacity of our mills. From those figures it will be perceived that even if California should manufacture for home consumption every pound of the wool clip of this season there would still be a deficit of 7,000,000 pounds of raw material. If this yield were to be absorbed by the home manufacturing interest it would give immediate and direct occupation to nearly 9 000 operatives besides retaining in circulation among us the enormous sums annually exchanged with the Eastern markets for the same commodities. The wool clip increases annually in the same ratio, and in one or two years, the yield will be far larger than could possibly be consumed by the home market, a supposition that importation should entirely cease which is not possible. This indicates the importance and also for the political economical reasons already mentioned of increasing the scope of our home manufacturing interests. The drain of capital is the important item in the commercial affairs of the country.

For several years, where the commerce of the community is based on a system of rapid exchange, as is always the case in newly settled countries, this may not be immediately felt; but according as the population increases and becomes every year more permanent the prosperity and financial soundness require the avoidance of such conditions except where they are reciprocal in their nature.

An article recently appeared in our columns in reference to the organization of the Mission and Pacific Woolen Mills consolidated, mentioning matters in connection with the proposed removal of the establishment to the Raley and O'Neil Tract South of San Francisco. This is a step in this direction which we are glad to see. The mills are running twenty "sets" of machinery at present and are turning out first-class grades of goods for the trade only. The capacity of the machinery will be nearly doubled, the Chinese labor at present necessitated for various reasons unnecessary to mention will be dispensed with in favor of white and three-fourths of the material produced will be cut up and manufactured into ready made clothing.

About fifty or fifty thousand suits will be turned out the first year and the quantity will then go forward in the crowd as fast as a market can be found for it. The goods manufactured will consist of tweeds, beavers, cassimeres, shawls, blankets, flannels, ladies' cloakings, etc.

It is calculated that 1,200 operatives will be constantly employed, 300 of whom will be boys and girls between the ages of 14 and 18 years, thus forming a large number of the most valuable class in any community—the constantly employed.

This is to certify that for the last two months we have used the Lespingwell Gas Saving Governors in our large mattress and find that we are fully satisfied with its operation having effected a saving during that time of about $25 per week. We therefore recommend them to the public.

TUBBS & PATTEN

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 15 1869

A PARSONS & CO—Gentlemen—Having used four of your Gas saving Governors for several months now I cheerfully endorse their saving qualities. I consider the money paid for your Governors the best investment I ever made. Yours truly

H. E. THRLARDT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 15 1869

A PARSONS & CO—Gentlemen—The Lespingwell Gas Governor which we have had in use in our store at No 125 Kearney street for the last five weeks is working well, and we consider it a durable and valuable machine—something that every gas consumer that studies his own interest should adopt. It has made a satisfactory reduction in our gas bills, and at the same time causing the burners to give a much more steady light.

ACKERMAN BROS

SAN FRANCISCO December 15 1869

I hereby certify that for the past two weeks I have used upon my meter one of Lespingwell's Gas Saving Governors—the saving of gas by its use being sufficient to justify me in purchasing the same.

THOS R. CHURCH 228 Montgomery St

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 16 1869

MESSRS A PARSONS & Co—Gentlemen—The "Gas Saving Governor" you applied to the meter of Dr. Gordon's premises, 133 Montgomery street, up into Occidental Hotel has proved very satisfactory both in economy and giving us steady light. Our bills represent a saving of about twenty five per cent, and we take pleasure in thus recommending those who have large gas bills to try the Governor. Yours Truly

DOYLE & CUNNINGHAM
